

STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

JENNIFER NAMUTEBI

STUDENT - MSC DIGITAL EDUCATION

Jennifer has a background in business psychology and currently works as a lecturer at Nkumba University and management consultant at Bantu Concepts (U) Ltd.

“ I like the MSc Digital Education program for its focus on innovation, flexibility, and practical applications, such as course design, learning spaces and gamification. ”

“ [...] the Digital Games, Play and Psychology of Learning course [is] the motivation I need for developing a framework that fosters not only skill development but also human flourishing. ”

“ The program is so interactive that at times I forget I am an online student [...]. Did I mention that we had a chance to meet and engage with some of the facilitators who travelled all the way to Uganda? That is how awesome this program is. ”
